

CAROLINE BRAZELTON

Abbreviated Biography

Caroline is a versatile musician, actress, and performer. With training in both classical and contemporary technique, she has comfortably made a home in both the operatic and musical theater worlds. A daring actress that relies heavily on her "secure vocal technique," Caroline believes that no matter the genre of performance, there is a story to be told that can resonate and change lives.

Most recently, Caroline performed the title role of Gretel in Hansel und Gretel with Steamboat Artist Institute under the direction of Brian Luedloff in Colorado. She has additionally been a young artist with Vancouver Song Institute, Hawaii Performing Arts Festival, and the Amalfi Coast Music and Arts Festival.

Some of her favorite roles she has played over the years has been Cunegonde (Candide), Gretel (Hansel und Gretel), Baker's Wife (Into the Woods), and Claire (Ordinary Days). Caroline is a native to Jacksonville, FL but currently resides in Harlem, NY. She currently studies with Matt Morgan and David L. Jones.